

Airl is an awesome station, the only one I listen to, infact. Airl gives my friends and me a positive alternative to listen to. Usually they would listen to not-so-possitive music. Now we can rock out and worship to music we love, and know the artists we hear believe what we do.

If Airl is replaced, I believe that kids/adults that once listened to it and may have depended on it for Godly encouragement, will turn back to former life-styles, and lives could be endangered.

I ask you to consider my brief comment seriously, as Airl is not just a radio station, but critical part of thousands of peoples everyday lives. Thank you.
